Engage: A Walk in the Dark Pt 2 | Romans 1:18-32 | 4.25.21

Icebreaker: Tell about a time when your GPS led you to a strange place or when it malfunctioned/broke during a time you needed it.

Rosario Butterfield's life was interrupted/influenced by a surprising friendship; share about a surprising yet influential relationship that you have/had that God used to interrupt your journey.

Have you ever wondered if the Gospel is for someone like you? What helped you to see that it was for you & for everyone?

When God "gives us over" to idolatry it leads to Brokenness...

1. Broken Guidance (vs 24)
 - Is anyone willing to share some of the idols that you have struggled with and how those guided your decisions?
 - Did the choices that you were making feel "sinful"? What helped you to begin to understand your need for repentance?
 - How can changing the object of our desires help us to fight idolatry?
2. Broken Boundaries (vs. 26-27)
 - Why does idolatry push us to ignore the boundaries that God has designed?
 - Can you think of other individuals in the Bible that pushed the boundaries due to their idolatry? (Tommy used the story of Amnon & Tamar)
 - Why do you think it was important for God to include these stories?
 - What do these stories teach us about God and ourselves?
3. Broken Relationships (vs. 29-31)
 - Have you witnessed or experienced broken relationships due to a struggle with idolatry?

Hopeful Thoughts

- Read 1 Corinthians 6:9-11 - How is God currently working in your life to free you from your idols and transform your heart?
- When we encounter an insider or outsider that is struggling with sin what are some ways that we can demonstrate God's love for them but not approve of them (vs. 31)?
